

TEACHING & EDUCATION

Shared Interest Group

AIB Teaching and Education Shared Interest Group (T&E SIG) promotes excellence in teaching and knowledge sharing among IB educators around the globe.

Check the team at:
<https://tesig.aib.world/leadership/>

What do we usually organize for the main conference?

- Teaching Cafes (since AIB 2018 Minnessotta)
- Professional Development Workshops (PDWs, since AIB 2019 Copenhagen)
- Teaching Track (since AIB 2020)
- Teaching Panels (since AIB 2021)
- Teaching Innovation Award (since AIB 2021)

Additional activities/ resources

Webinars –

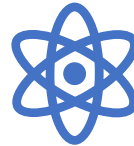

<https://tesig.aib.world/resources/aib-te-sig-webinars/>

Newsletters & Teaching
Insights –

<https://tesig.aib.world/newsletters/>

<https://tesig.aib.world/insights-for-aib-educators/>

Video capsules -

<https://tesig.aib.world/short-video-capsules/>

Mini teaching cases -

<https://tesig.aib.world/mini-cases-for-teaching-ib/>

Digital platforms database -

<https://tesig.aib.world/resources/digital-platforms-database/>

KEY POINTS:

- How we can incorporate sustainability and EDI practices into the curriculum.
- Global research AIB T&E SIG teaching resources are available to members
- AIB Innovative teaching awards, with winning papers featured in the Journal of Teaching in International Business Special Issue.
- Margaret highlighted how using diverse teaching cases can support inclusion and teams working on impact cases could include early career researchers.

Prof. Margaret Fletcher - University of Glasgow
Margaret.Fletcher@glasgow.ac.uk